

Annual Action Plan for 2020-21

Scheme: Construction of Hostels for OBCs Boys & Girls

Budget Estimate: Rs. 50.00 Crore (2020-21)

Objective of the Scheme: The Scheme aims at providing hostel facilities to students belonging to socially and educationally backward classes, especially from rural areas to enable them to pursue secondary and higher education

1. Reporting of status of construction

Every State may intimate the status of the hostels already sanctioned giving the following details:

- a. Name of the hostel sanctioned:
- b. Location
- c. Year of sanction
- d. Number of seats sanctioned:
- e. Estimated cost:
- f. Current status: Completed/Under progress/yet to start
 - i. If completed, whether occupied or not:
 - ii. If under progress, the exact stage of the building, along with the expected date of completion
 - iii. If not started, whether the work has been tendered and entrusted?
 - iv. Reasons for not starting:
- g. Amount required during 2020-21:

2. Proposals for 2nd instalment

The States requiring 2nd instalment, are required to submit the UC for the amounts already released, along with the report on status of construction.

3. Proposals for new hostels

All States can send proposals for new hostels as per the guidelines of the scheme along with the site availability certificate and the details of the executing agency. Normally, hostels which are attached to/located in the campus of the higher educational institutions will be given priority for sanction. It is essential that the institution in whose campus is the hostel located shall give a commitment for managing the hostel on its completion. No posts for managing the hostel would be sanctioned under this scheme.
