06 April, 2018

Respected Sir/Madam,

Government of India is celebrating the birth anniversary of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar from 14.04.2018 to 05.05.2018 as 'Gram Swaraj Abhiyan' with the objective of promoting social harmony. Dr. Ambedkar Jayanti, 14th April, 2018 is to be celebrated as 'Samajik Nyay Diwas' (Social Justice Day).

2. Commemorative activities such as Public Lectures/talks by eminent scholars/academicians, holding of debates, quiz competitions on the theme of Rashtriya Samrasta/Samajik Nyay amongst students of schools and colleges, organizing runs for social justice, felicitations of bright children at Panchayat level need to be undertaken.

3. The State Governments should undertake, in a camp mode, outreach programmes for this fortnight, to identify out of school children as well as those without a requisite caste and income certificates.

4. Following activities need to be taken up:

- Camps to be held on 14.04.2018 onwards, for a fortnight in identified villages for providing caste and income certificates to those Scheduled Caste families who do not have caste and income certificates.
- All children from Class VIII onwards must be enrolled in the School.
- 100% enrolment of students must be ensured.
- Eligible Scheduled Caste students based on income criteria under appropriate scheme must also be enrolled for appropriate scholarships-Pre Matric Scholarship and Post Matric Scholarship.

5. This activity needs to be undertaken on a Mission Mode commencing from 14th April, 2018. The progress will be monitored on as MIS whose details will be made available shortly.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Dr. Thaawarchand Gehlot)
