

National Overseas Scholarship for SC etc. Candidates

(Applicable from the year 2025-26)

1 Objective of the Scheme

The Central Sector Scheme of National Overseas Scholarship is to facilitate the low income students belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Denotified Nomadic and Semi-Nomadic Tribes, Landless Agricultural Labourers and Traditional Artisans category to obtain higher education viz., Master degree or Ph.D courses by studying abroad thereby improving their Economic and Social status.

2 Scope

- a. The Scheme provides financial assistance to the selected candidates for pursuing Masters level courses and Ph.D. courses abroad in Institutions/Universities accredited by the Government/authorized body of that country in any field of study.
- b. In each Selection Year, 125 fresh awards, subject to availability of funds, will be given under the Scheme. However, there will be a cap of 10% of the total slots i.e. Scheduled Castes, Denotified, Nomadic and Semi-Nomadic Tribes and landless Agricultural Labourers and Traditional Artisans for each State while allotting the slots. In case, the slots in the 1st round of selection remains unfilled after applying the 10% cap, these slots will be filled in 2nd round.
- c. The following will be the category-wise distribution of slots for various groups eligible for scholarships under the scheme:

S. No.	Category	Numbers
a)	Scheduled Castes	115
b)	Denotified, Nomadic and Semi-Nomadic Tribes	06
c)	Landless Agricultural Labourers and Traditional Artisans	04
	Total slots	125

d. Definitions:

- i. Landless agricultural laborer means an individual and their family members who do not own any property, land, or business and whose principal means of livelihood is manual labour on agricultural land.
- ii. Traditional artisans means individuals and their families who earn their livelihood through traditional artisanal practices.

e. If for any specific year, successful candidates are not available to the extent prescribed for each of the above listed categories, the awards for that year will become open for candidates belonging to other categories mentioned above as per merit criteria under the scheme.

f. 30% of the awards for each year shall be earmarked for women candidates. However, in case, adequate women candidates are not available as per the stipulations of the scheme, then the unutilized slots will be utilized by selecting suitable male candidates.

g. Bachelors Level courses in any discipline are not covered under the Scheme.

h. Candidates already staying or studying or having completed studies abroad in any course by utilizing any other scholarship from Central Government, State Government, other agency, or through own funds are not eligible to apply under NOS.

i. Candidates having unconditional offer of admission to top 500 ranked foreign Institutes/Universities as per the latest available QS World University Rankings for the year 2025 only will be selected for grant of scholarship during the first round of selection. The QS ranking of the University for its campus in any other country will be considered as per the QS ranking of the University Campus in that country. If there is no QS ranking available for its campus in other country then it will not be considered. In the second round of selection in the year, the following priority will be given:

(i) Candidates having unconditional offer letter of admission from Top 500 QS Ranking Institutions applying in the second cycle.

(ii) Candidates having unconditional offer letter of admission from other QS ranked Institutions, who have applied for scholarship under the scheme during the previous cycles or current cycle of the current year for admission.

(iii) Candidates having unconditional offer letter of admission from other recognized Institutions, who have applied for scholarship under the scheme during the previous cycles or current cycle of the current cycle for admission.

However, any financial condition mentioned in the offer of admission such as deposit of fee or any other amount, or proof of source of funds, shall not be a bar for consideration of application under the Scheme guidelines.

3 Minimum Qualification

In order to be eligible for scholarship, at least 60% marks or equivalent grade in the qualifying examination would be required. In case of Ph. D courses, the qualifying exam would be Master's Degree and for Master's Degree courses, the qualifying examination would be Bachelor's Degree. In case a student has completed Bachelor's of Engineering after completing Diploma (Lateral Entry to 2nd year), percentage of marks obtained in Bachelor's degree will be taken into account.

For any University, percentage would be calculated on the basis of the marks obtained by the applicant in various semesters/ terms. Marksheet for all semesters is to be provided. Wherein the University provides only the CGPA and not the numerical marks, a formula for conversion of CGPA to numerical marks bearing authentication by the University should invariably be provided.

In case marksheets for all semesters/terms are not submitted with the application form the candidature of the applicant will be rejected. Likewise, if the formula of conversion of CGPA (wherever applicable) are not submitted by the applicant with his application form, the candidature would be rejected. No representations, in this regard, in either case will be entertained.

4 Age

Not more than 35 (Thirty Five) years, as on first day of April for selection year.

5 Income Ceiling

Gross annual family income from all sources shall not exceed Rs. 8.00 lakh per annum in the preceding financial year as detailed in para 8 c of these guidelines. The income certificate should be issued by a Revenue Officer not below the rank of "Tehsildar". The students will submit the complete ITR/ITRs along with the Centralized Processing Centre (CPC) intimation order under Section 143(1) issued by the IT Department in respect of self and other family members before issuance of final award letter but the ITR acknowledgement should be submitted at the time of applying on the portal where Gross annual family income for the F.Y. 2023-24 is more than Rs. 2.5 Lakh in Old Tax Regime and Rs. 3.0 Lakh in New Tax Regime. The income certificate should either be in digital, prescribed format of Central/State Govt. or on the letter head of the issuing authority.

6 Family

Under the Scheme, for determination of family income, the family will be considered as following:

"The candidate applying for scholarship, his/her parents and siblings below the age of 18 years, his/her spouse and also children below the age of 18 years."

Note: In case of married women, income of the in-laws and her spouse and children below the age of 18 years will be considered.

7 Maximum Number of children in a family for the award

An awardee cannot be considered for the award for a second time as the award can be given only once. Not more than two children of the same parents/guardians will be eligible for scholarship under the scheme and a self-certification will be required from the candidate to this effect. The second child of the same parents/guardians will be considered only if slots are still available in the last cycle of the year in which the applicant has applied.

8. Application Procedure

- a. The scheme will be advertised in the news papers/other media giving summarized information about the Scheme. The candidates, after assessing their eligibility and suitability, as per the eligibility conditions of the Scheme Guidelines, can apply online to this Ministry on the portal, i.e., www.nosmsje.gov.in.
- b. The selection year period would be April-March of each year. The portal shall be opened for calling of applications for the first round in February/March for a period of 40 days for inviting of applications online and after this period, the portal will be opened again for 4 days to allow the candidates to make corrections, if any, in the submitted applications (before the beginning of selection year) and only online applications received shall be considered for award of selection. In case the slots remains unfilled, the portal will be opened again for the second cycle in September/October for a period of 40 days for inviting of applications online and after this period, the portal will be opened again for 4 days to allow the candidates to make corrections, if any, in the submitted applications in each selection year.
- c. For the first round of each Selection Year, gross annual family income for last completed financial year will be taken into account for the purpose of selection. For the second round, the gross annual family income for the previous completed financial year will be taken into account for purpose of selection. For example, for the selection year 2025-26, online portal for inviting applications of NOS Scholarship for first round will be opened in February/March 2025 for a period of 40 days for inviting of applications online and 4 days will be given for correction and gross annual family income for financial year 2023-24 will be taken into account for purpose of selection. However, in such cases where gross annual family income for FY 2023-24 is more than Rs.2.5 lakh in Old Tax Regime and Rs. 3.0 Lakh in New Tax Regime, then in such cases gross annual family income for the financial year 2024-25 i.e. last completed financial year will also be taken into account before issuance of the final award letter besides gross annual family income for the financial year 2023-24 (to be furnished during the application submission process) and scholarship will be granted to the candidate subject to the condition that his/her gross annual family income for the financial year 2024-25 is less than Rs.8.00 lakh. Failing this, the provisional award letter issued to the candidate will stand cancelled. The portal for second round will be opened in September/October for a period of 40 days for inviting of applications online and 4 days will be given for correction and for that gross annual family income for financial year 2024-25 will be taken into account for purpose of selection.

- d. Online applications complete in all respects only shall be considered for award. All the incomplete applications will be summarily rejected. However, the rejected candidates/Non-selected candidates will have the option to apply in subsequent phases of selection. The candidates are required to submit documents as per the attached Annexure I.
- e. Grievances in connection with results will be entertained for upto 30 calendar days from the publication of the Result on the portal and the inadvertent mistakes occurred at the time of scrutiny of the application of the candidate will only be considered. No additional documents will be accepted and considered during the redressal period of Grievance.
- f. For determining the eligibility of a candidate against a quota reserved for a particular State/UT, the State/UT that issued the Caste Certificate will be considered as his/her State/UT for the purpose of quota eligibility.

9 Selection Procedures

- a. Only candidates who have submitted their Aadhar card and obtained unconditional offer of admission from one of the foreign Institutions/Universities which are in the list of top 500 QS world ranked institutions/universities from the academic session 2025-26 and onward shall be considered for award of scholarship for studying in that Institution/University subject to fulfillment of other eligibility conditions of the Scheme. However, in case the students are unable to submit their Aadhar Card on the portal at the time of application, they will be asked to mandatorily submit their Aadhar ID/Aadhar EID before the issue of final award letter/confirmation letter failing which the provisional award letter issued to them would be revoked.
- b. No request for change of Institution/University shall be entertained. In case the selected candidate desires to change the course or university, he/she can apply afresh in the next available round.
- c. There will be only two round of Selection. For every cycle of selection, merit list of the eligible candidates shall be drawn up on the basis of the rank, as per the latest available QS ranking, of the foreign Universities/Institutions from where the candidate has received the offer of admission and scholarships shall be awarded in order of this merit. The candidates holding an offer letter from the higher ranked University/ Institution will be ranked higher in the merit list. In case of a tie between the QS rankings of two or more candidates, their position in merit will be decided on the basis of the marks/grades secured by the candidate in the qualifying examination for the higher studies for which the scholarship has been applied for.

- d. The online applications of the eligible candidates shall be placed before the Selection-cum-Screening Committee for making their recommendations for selection and ranking of the eligible candidates for scholarship.
- e. Wait list of eligible candidates will be maintained in the final round. The wait list will be valid upto 31st March of the selection year. Candidates on the wait list may apply for the next selection year as well. Waitlist will be maximum of 50% of the total seats.
- f. The candidates who intend to leave country after the issuance of provisional award letter for pursuing their further studies must intimate this Department, providing detailed information about their source of funding; including loan documents, proof of financial transaction etc. before leaving the country. Failure to comply shall result in the cancellation of their candidature.
- g. Students may be allowed a maximum time period of either one year or two intake deferrals, whichever is earlier from the date of issuance of provisional award letter to join university/Institute abroad failing which the award would stand automatically cancelled and no correspondence in this regard will be entertained thereafter.
- h. If in case Confirmation of Award letter is issued to an awardee, he/she has to complete all the procedures like verification of original documents, submission of Bonds, Solvency Certificates etc. within SIX (6) months from the date of issuance of Confirmation of Award Letter, otherwise the award letter will be automatically cancelled. No further time will be granted for completion of these formalities.
- i. The timelines for selection of candidates under the guidelines is placed at Annexure-II.

10. Mandatory Conditions

- i. The candidates are required to submit their Aadhar Card on the NOS portal and make their own efforts in seeking admission in programmes/ fields specified in the Scheme in the latest available top 500 QS ranking Institutions/Universities. (<https://www.topuniversities.com/university-rankings/world-university-rankings/2025>)
- ii. The candidate is not eligible for scholarship under this scheme to pursue the same level (Masters/Ph.D.) of course for which he/she has already acquired the qualification from any University/Institution either in India or abroad.

- iii. Topics/courses concerning Indian Culture/heritage/History/Social studies on India based research topic shall not be covered under NOS. The final decision as to which Topic can be covered under such category will rest with Selection-cum-Screening Committee of NOS.
- iv. Employed candidates are required to provide a “No Objection Certificate” (NOC) from the Employer to this Ministry.
- v. In case the awardee was a Government Servant before going abroad, on return to India he/she is also required to serve the Government, if he/she continues to be in Government service after return to India, as one was before going abroad with award under the Scheme.
- vi. All administrative matters like study leave, salary etc. will be directly resolved by the candidate with his/her employer and as per rules of the serving organization. This Ministry will not take any responsibility or render any assistance in this regard.
- vii. It will be for the candidate to obtain the appropriate visa for a country wherein he/she intends to study further with the award from the Scheme, and the Visa issuing authorities may see that only such type of visa be issued which permits the candidate to pursue specified course abroad and thereafter the candidate returns to India. In case the candidate is applying for admission in any University in the United States of America, the candidate is required to obtain J-1 VISA only. The State Department of USA keeps a list of Designated Sponsor Organizations for J-1 visas for students. Candidates going to USA should apply in the J-1 Visa sponsoring Universities/colleges only. In case a candidate has applied for admission on F-1 Visa or has already obtained F-1 Visa, such candidate is not eligible for scholarship under the Scheme. Government of India will render no assistance to the candidate for obtaining Visa.
- viii. The candidate will give an undertaking that he/she will allow his/her University to share information with concerned Indian Mission abroad and the Ministry. The candidate will also give an undertaking that he/she is not in receipt of any scholarship from Government of India/State Government/ foreign government/other organization in India or abroad. In case candidate is in receipt of any scholarship from University/College in which he/she has secured admission for the course, the same scholarship will be allowed, however, the candidate should report the same to this Ministry and this amount of scholarship will be deducted from admissible amount under NOS. The selected candidate will also be required to give an undertaking to this Ministry and the Indian Mission abroad, as per prevailing laws of the foreign country, that the extension of stay abroad beyond completion of the course or duration of the scholarship under the scheme, whichever is earlier will not be permissible. However, the extension of stay abroad beyond completion of the course or duration of the scholarship under the Scheme, whichever is earlier is permissible as mentioned in clause 14.
- ix. In case the concerned University/Institute is allowing online classes to the awardee due to Corona Pandemic (covid-19) or any other such unavoidable situation arising in future, the candidate is required to join the online classes after completion of all the procedural formalities as per scheme guidelines.

- x. The selected candidate is required to execute a bond on a non-judicial stamp paper before a notary-public with two sureties who will execute surety bonds separately for the actual amount to be spent by Government of India on the candidate or Rs.50,000/- (fifty thousand) whichever is higher. Each of the surety bonds shall specify and cover for the estimated expenditure in Indian Rupees that would be incurred as travel expenses, fees, maintenance and contingency allowances, stipends, scholarship and other miscellaneous expenses, on the awardee during the entire period of study abroad and shall become payable by the sureties jointly or/and severally in case the awardee is declared a defaulter by the Ministry under the provisions of the scheme. The language of the bond as decided by the Government of India has to be acceptable to the candidate. The selected candidates have to provide solvency certificates for both the sureties to be issued by Revenue department of the concerned State Government.
- xi. In case the selected candidate obtains admission in an accredited University/Institution abroad and joins the University/Institution before execution of bonds as mentioned in clause 10(ix) and is not in a position to return to India then he/she may execute a Power of Attorney (POA) for any of his/her representative in India to act for and on his/her behalf to execute legal Bonds/agreements/undertakings with the Government of India. All such applicants are required to get the POA attested/validated by Indian Embassy/High Commission in the country where he/she is pursuing studies.
- xii. The Selected candidates are required to furnish all such documents and enter into such agreements before their departure as shall be decided by the Government of India from time to time.
- xiii. In case the married candidate take a decision to take their spouse and children with them or join them subsequently during the period of study, it is entirely for them to assess their financial potential and availability of passport, visa etc. as no financial assistance of any kind as well as any other support coverage is provided under the Scheme for their spouse and children.
- xiv. In case the awardee has received over payment through Indian Mission abroad or any other Government agency, he/she is liable to refund the same to Government of India and his/her employer (if any) is authorized to recover the excess amount from his/her dues, on request from Government of India, and refund the same to Government of India.
- xv. No scholarship will be disbursed/ paid to the candidates who complete their education abroad without completing the required procedure/formalities under NOS Scheme.
- xvi. This Ministry, if necessary, in consultation with other Departments/Agencies, will take decision on such issues concerning awardees arising out of such situations and circumstances which are of unforeseeable nature and, thus, not covered under this written Scheme and the decisions of the Ministry will be final and binding on the awardees.

- xvii. The candidates shall not change the course of study or research for which scholarship has been sanctioned. However, when situations arise where an awardee pursuing Ph.D in a University/Institution where one is initially registered finds his/her guide has left and there are no immediate replacements thereof or the University/Institutions has discontinued their research support facilities in the area where the awardee was pursuing Ph.D. research; the Indian Missions abroad in such cases are authorized to allow the awardee to change the University/ Institution as notified in the scheme, after the Missions are satisfied about such a need, however, subject to the condition that the credits if any earned by the awardee in the initial University/Institution are accepted for transfer by the second University/ Institutions and that the total period of award will remain unchanged even on such a transfer/change, which will be permitted only once during the award.
- xviii. In case the candidate fails, the following provisions will apply:-
- i). No payment for reappearing in any failed subject is allowed.
 - ii). If a candidate seeks an extension solely due to academic failure, no additional financial assistance for the extension will be granted. However, in cases where failure is accompanied by justifiable reasons, such requests may be considered with the approval of the competent authority, based on recommendations from the Indian mission abroad and the respective university.
- xix. In case of exigency at home where the awardee is required to return to India for some time to attend to it, the awardee is permitted to return to India for the specific purpose, after having informed the Indian Mission and the educational institution where one is pursuing studies, about it. The awardee will, however, be required to bear to and fro journey expenses for the visit and shall also not be entitled to receive maintenance allowance under the scheme from the Indian Mission, for the period of being away from the place of his/her educational institution abroad and the maintenance allowance shall be resumed by the Indian Mission only from the date of his/her resuming the same course at the same institution. The awardee after having dealt with the situation at home, is required to return to the place of his/her educational institution, as early as possible; failing which, he/she shall be liable to be declared a defaulter and the recovery proceeding will be initiated against him/her.
- xx. All candidates after having availed of the award under the Scheme are required to return to India within 30 days from the date of completion of the course for employment and sharing their knowledge gained overseas. Students have to stay in India for at least one year and look for opportunities to serve in various Departments/Ministries of the Government of India.
- xxi. It is expected that the beneficiaries of the Scheme shall explore the opportunities to contribute towards Nation building and shall not indulge in any anti-National activities.

11 Role of Indian Mission

- i. Indian Mission will make payments of tuition fees/maintenance allowance/other allowances to the students studying in their jurisdiction as per the existing arrangements and sanction orders.
- ii. In case the awardee is unable to complete the course successfully, he will be declared defaulter and will become liable for refund of entire amount spent on him/her along with the interest as prescribed in clause 16 on Defaulter clause. However, if the guide/head of the department of the candidate certifies that the candidate has not been found wanting in his/her commitment/dedication/attention to studies then the Ministry shall have the right to exempt him/her from the penalty clause of defaulter under the Scheme. The Indian Missions, in all such cases, will provide the return air passage to India by shortest route and economy class.
- iii. When the awardee overstays abroad for more than one month after successful completion of the course and then of his/her own returns to India at own cost, he/she will not be entitled to receive refund of return passage booked by him/her. In normal circumstances, immediately after successful completion of the course, the Indian Missions abroad books the return journey, for the awardee as provided in the Scheme, and thus, the overstaying awardee without any specific purpose for more than a month after the course is over, will forfeit his/her claims of return passage at Government expense through Indian Missions abroad.
- iv. Monitoring the progress of the students on regular basis.
- v. The Indian Missions are required to intimate to this Ministry about the return of the awardee to India.

12 Monitoring

- i. The Indian Missions abroad will obtain bi-annual progress reports from the University/ Institution where the awardee is pursuing his/her studies for which the award was given under the Scheme. The Missions will inform to this Ministry such serious adverse developments in case of the awardee which requires decision towards further continuation of the award or otherwise. The Missions will, however, keep on advising such awardees to put serious efforts in improving their achievements that are not seen to be up to the mark as reflected in their said bi-annual progress reports and they may also be reminded that financial assistance under the Scheme is not extendable beyond the stipulated period under the Scheme.
- ii. The payment of Maintenance Allowance is linked with furnishing of progress report. For first semester, the maintenance allowance may be paid to the scholarship awardee in the first instance as an advance in two installments: first after three months and second after another three months. Thereafter, the maintenance allowance for the next semester may be paid quarterly only after receipt of the satisfactory progress report of the awardee.

- iii. The Mission & Ministry will maintain position of selection, sanction order, release of funds & progress of students etc. on the NOS Portal.

The final decision in this regard will, however, rest with the Government of India alone.

15 Jurisdiction of the Scheme

The jurisdiction of the Scheme is upto providing prescribed financial support to the selected candidates for pursuing higher education in the specified subjects.

16 Default under the Scheme

In case a candidate pursuing studies abroad violates any of the terms and conditions of the bonds executed by him/her and that the educational Institution/University intimates the Indian Mission abroad about his/her adverse reports on studies and/or conduct and/or that the candidate leaves for any other country or absconds or joins any other university or course/programme or/and returns to India in case of exigency without intimating the Indian Mission abroad, he/she will be declared defaulter and will become liable for refund of entire amount spent on him/her along with the interest which will be 12% per annum and in case an awardee fails to repay the amount within six months from the date on which a demand for such refund is made, penal interest at the rate which is 2.5% higher than the above normal rate of interest on the outstanding amount would be charged. If the awardee fails to repay such amount along with interest thereon in the manner decided by Government of India, his/her sureties who have executed bonds, will be liable to pay the entire amount failing which the District Collector of the concerned district will realize the amount as arrears of land revenue.

17 Furnishing of False Information

If any candidate has furnished any false information/document and is established as false, he/she will be debarred from the award and if he/she has availed of it or is availing, an action will be initiated for recovery of the amount spent with 15% compound interest thereon. Such candidate will also be black listed for future and the employed candidate will also have to face departmental action for such act, for which the Government of India will take up the matter with the respective employers. The respective employers are, therefore, also requested to carefully go through contents of application of their employees before giving NOC to the applicant. The employers are also free to insist on candidates employed by them to execute such bonds with them, as they deem fit and necessary and in accordance with their rules and regulations in such cases.
