Section – I: Description of the Award

1. The National Award shall be given to Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) or individual Human Rights Activists who have done outstanding fieldwork in the area of eradicating untouchability and in combating offences of atrocities under the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955 (PCR Act) and the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 (PoA Act).
2. There shall be Four Awards every year. Award to individual activist shall carry an amount of Rs.2.00 lakhs and to an Institution shall carry an amount of Rs.5.00 lakhs. The Award will be given to outstanding NGOs or Human Rights Activists in each of the four regions of the country namely North, South, East and West for rendering yeomen services in the said fields.
3. The Award may be presented jointly or shared by more than one recipient or organisation as may be considered by the Jury to be equally deserving of recognition in a given year.
4. Normally the Award will not be presented posthumously. If, however, the death occurred subsequent to a proposal having been submitted to the jury in the manner stipulated in this Code, then the Award may be presented posthumously.
5. A Screening Committee and finally the Selection Committee constituted for the purpose shall consider the achievement of the NGOs and the Individual Human Rights Activists nominated/recommended for the Award by the prescribed authority. The outstanding fieldwork in the area of eradicating untouchability and combating offences of atrocities shall be the primary consideration in identifying the Awardee.

Section – II: Eligibility for Award

1. The Award is open to all Indian NGOs and Human Rights Activists without any distinction or discrimination on grounds of race, sex, caste or creed.
2. To be eligible for the Award, it would ordinarily be necessary that an NGO and the Human Rights Activists is recommended in writing by someone competent therefor in accordance with Section – IV of this Code.
3. Personal applications for the Award shall not be considered by the Screening Committee and the Selection Committee.

Section – III: Periodicity of the Award

1. The Award shall be instituted in the year 2016 and conferred annually as far as possible. However, owing to certain administrative and operational factors, the award can be clubbed for several years.
2. If it is considered that none of the proposals that have been made, merit recognition, the Screening Committee and the Selection Committee will be free to withhold the Award for that year.
3. Only recent achievements or contributions made within two years immediately preceding the nomination shall be considered for the Award. However, older work may be considered if its significance has become apparent only recently. The award shall not be conferred in appreciation of the activity which is older than two years from the date of nomination for the award.

Section – IV: Competence to Submit Proposals

1. Competence to submit proposals for the Award shall be of :

(i) Ministries of the Government of India. The proposal is required to be signed by an officer not below the level of Joint Secretary.
